8. (Unclassified - PLC) Jim Oliver, OMB, called and per his request I gave him a rundown of the differences in the text of H. Res. 138, a bill establishing the House Select Committee on Intelligence, and H. Res. 169, a bill abolishing the Committee and establishing a new one.

9. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Delivered a letter from Mr. Cary to Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, concerning the up-coming trip to Latin America. Later in the day, on Mr. Cary's instructions, I delivered an FBIS item on the Turkish reaction to the House vote on the arms embargo and an Agency paper responding to allegations about Agency counterfeiting activities in Southeast Asia. In McConnell's absence, Jane McMullen, of the staff, received the documents and said she would bring them to his attention.

10. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Delivered to the offices of Senators Charles H. Percy (R., Ill.), William D. Hathaway (D., Maine), Jacob K. Javits (R., N.Y.) and Stuart Symington (D., Mo.) FBIS items in which their names were mentioned.

11. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Received a call from Tom Smeeton, Minority staff, House International Relations Committee, who requested information on the current situation in Turkey. Based on information provided by Mr. Cary, I responded to Smeeton's inquiry. He asked that we keep him posted as the situation develops and I said I would.

12. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Delivered an FBIS item on the Turkish reaction to the House vote on the arms embargo to Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and Charles Snodgrass, Defense Subcommittee staff, House Appropriations.

13. (Internal Use Only - RJK) Spoke with Mark Fox, on the staff of Senator Patrick J. Leahy (D., Vt.), and advised him that I had dropped off our responses on his inquiry on legislative liaison and case work to the Senator's office yesterday. Fox replied that he already received the letter.

6. [redacted] Tim Ingram, on the staff of the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights, called. I told him our letter on cases referred to the Department of Justice or considered for subject referral was about ready and should leave by tomorrow. He asked if I had received his letter and I told him I did not, but apparently we should receive it shortly. He said, for our information, the Subcommittee will receive testimony from Kevin Maroney, of the Justice Department, on the 22nd of this month as well as from Larry Houston. He said they would possibly also want to have John Warner appear on the 23rd to discuss the termination of the agreement with the Department of Justice. I told him that Mr. Warner is currently out of town but I expected him back by the end of the week.
